

בְּשֵׁרָאֵלֵינוּ

THE GREATEST MESSENGER

HEBREWS 1:4-2:4

⁴ So he became superior to the angels, just as the name he inherited is more excellent than theirs. ⁵ For to which of the angels did he ever say, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father” or again, “I will be his Father, and he will be my Son?” ⁶ Again, when he brings

HEBREWS 1:4-2:4

his firstborn into the world, he says,
“And let all God’s angels worship him.”

⁷ And about the angels he says: “He makes his angels winds, and his servants a fiery flame,” ⁸ but to the Son: “Your throne, God, is forever and ever, and the scepter of your kingdom is a

HEBREWS 1:4-2:4

scepter of justice. ⁹ You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; this is why God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of joy beyond your companions.” ¹⁰ And: “In the beginning, Lord, you established the earth, and the heavens are the works of your hands;

HEBREWS 1:4-2:4

¹¹ they will perish, but you remain. They will all wear out like clothing; ¹² you will roll them up like a cloak, and they will be changed like clothing. But you are the same, and your years will never end.”

¹³ Now to which of the angels has he ever said: “Sit at my right hand until I

HEBREWS 1:4-2:4

make your enemies your footstool?”

¹⁴ Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve those who are going to inherit salvation? ¹ For this reason, we must pay attention all the more to what we have heard, so that we will not drift away. ² For if the message spoken through angels was legally binding and every transgression and disobedience received a just punishment,³ how will we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? This salvation had its beginning when it was spoken of by the Lord, and it was confirmed to us by those who heard him. ⁴ At the same time, God also testified by signs and wonders, various miracles, and distributions of gifts from the Holy Spirit according to his will.

HEBREWS 1:4-2:4

HEBREWS 1:4-2:4

“The paradox of apathy is that we are captivated by the things we don’t really care about and are lukewarm to the things that, in our heart of hearts, mean the most to us. We don’t act on what we should act on, but we are awakened to things we should probably ignore.”
